Local Government Pension Scheme Password Re-Registration Form

Changing Your Password

Your old password has now been suspended as requested. To benefit from this service again and for security reasons you must re-register and set up another unique password. You can do this now by completing and returning this form, using the envelope provided. You need only re-register once for this service.

In future, every time you call to request private information or to make a change to your personal details you will be asked to confirm your password and at least two other pieces of information personal to you. When staff are confident about your identity they will process your request and provide written confirmation of any changes actioned by you.
