

What happens if I am on strike?

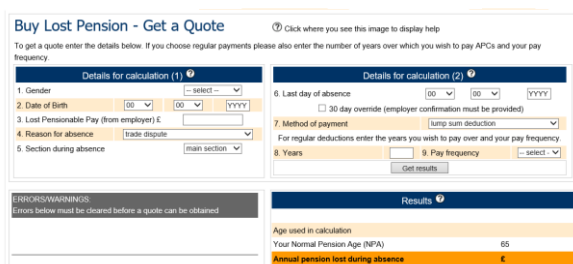

If you are absent for a day or more due to a trade dispute the period will not count for pension purposes unless you elect to pay APCs to purchase the amount of pension lost during that period of absence.

The amount of pension lost is calculated as the appropriate fraction of your lost pensionable pay for that period of absence.

The cost of purchasing the amount of lost pension for the period of absence would be met fully by you (unless your employer voluntarily chooses to make a contribution to the APC).

What do I need to do?

To obtain a quote to buy lost pension you will need to visit – <https://www.lgpsmember.org/more/apc/index.php>

If you are in the Main section of the Scheme you would calculate your lost pension as 1/49th of your lost pensionable pay e.g.

$$\text{Pay} \div 365 \text{ days} = \text{pay lost per day}^*$$

$$^* \text{Pay} \div 49 = \text{pension lost per day of strike}$$

If you are in the 50/50 section of the Scheme you would calculate your lost pension as 1/98th of your lost pensionable pay e.g.

$$\text{Pay} \div 365 \text{ days} = \text{pay lost per day}^*$$

$$^* \text{Pay} \div 49 = \text{pension lost per day of strike}$$
